Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GROVER CLEVELAND, New York

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
T. A. HENDRICKS, Indiana.

For Member of Congress,
FRANK POWERS, of Carter.

A Big Gun.

We are pleased to announce that Hon. Jo. S. C. Blackburn has accepted an invitation to address the voters of Bath county at the Court House on Tuesday next. No word in praise from us is needed. Let every one turn out to hear this orator, who stands without a rival in the State.

Over In Ohio.

It would make the slow-going Kentucky Democrat ashamed of himself to take a trip to Ohio and witness the determination and enthusiasm of their brethren in that state which is now ablaze with excitement from one end to the other. In every town and hamlet Cleveland and Hendricks clubs have been formed and speaking and torch light processions are of nightly occurrence. If they do not carry the state next Tuesday it will be because of the immense sums of money which have been sent to the State by the Republicans, who are fighting for their very existence and consequently, with desperation. We were in the state on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last and talked to a great many democrats. They are of the opinion that if the election had taken place any day last week they would undoubtedly have carried the state by from ten to twenty thousand. What changes the present week will bring forth they were not prepared to say. This week will be devoted to effecting more perfect organizations and crystallizing of forces. On the other hand the Republicans just as confidently claim the state but will not give nor venture one boastful, prominent Kentucky Republican in Cincinnati who said their majority would be all the way from twenty to twenty-five thousand.

The Blaine demonstration in Cincinnati last Thursday night was very naturally a monster affair but it will be a mere pigmy when compared with the Democratic jamboree Saturday night. Democratic clubs from all the cities and towns in Kentucky, within striking distance of Cincinnati, have determined to attend uniformed and with torches.

The vote next Tuesday will probably reach eight hundred thousand. Some idea of the political temperature can be formed when it is known, with all this tremendous vote, neither party can lay claim, justly, to more than five thousand majority.

We hope for success, but with the lights of the past to guide our judgment we advise all of our friends to be prepared for a disappointment. If we do down them we will all join hands and have a regular old fashioned blow-out.

The New York Truth, an independent journal, which has heretofore taken no part in the Presidential canvass, now says: "After weighing all the evidence pro and con we do not hesitate to recommend every voter to cast his ballot for Cleveland and Hendricks. It would be disgraceful were the American people to indorse the dishonorable tactics adopted by Mr. Blaine and the Republican leaders in this campaign by the election of Blaine and Logan. The course pursued by them is not only disgraceful—it is demoralizing. Its indorsement now would lead to a like course in the future, and the effect would be to undermine and destroy all the decencies of life—to corrupt and degrade the whole people. It would be a bad example to our young men, who read the papers and observe the political maneuvers of the day, to show them that dishonorable conduct in a candidate may be rewarded by the highest office in the gift of the American people."

Did you never hear Blackburn speak? Well, although your life has been a barren waste up to the present time, you may yet retrieve a portion of it if you will come to town Tuesday and hear him.

The subscribers of the Apostolic Times should rebuke the attempt of its editors to drag the robes of the church through the slimy mire of politics, by discontinuing the paper.

Here Is The Proof.

Here is the incontrovertible proof that Mr. Wadsworth deliberately scratched Aabury's name: STATE OF KENTUCKY, MASON COUNTY, Set: I, W. W. Ball, clerk of the county court for the county and state aforesaid, do certify that at an election held on the 6th day of August, 1883, for Mason county Kentucky, in Mayesville, voting precinct No. 2, W. H. Wadsworth sr, voted for Thos. Z. Morrow, for Governor, for Speed S. Fry for Lieutenant Governor, for L. C. Garrigus for Attorney General, for Edward Farley for Treasurer, for J. P. Pinkerton for Superintendent of Public Instruction, for Register of Land Office, he did not vote, and for Representative, he voted for A. A. Wadsworth, all of which is shown by the poll book, of said voting precinct on file in my office.

Given under my hand this 2d day of October 1884.

W. W. Ball,
Clerk Mason Co. Ct.

We see from the Denver papers that Col. Will. L. Vischer, (our Will) has been nominated by the Democrats of that city for the Legislature. Vischer, we are all with you and will vote both men and money to further your interests. The "unterrified" of Denver have done themselves very proud in this selection. Of course he will be elected. Who could vote against him? And won't he keep things lively over in his wing of the capitol.

Governor Glick of Kansas, has issued a proclamation prohibiting the introduction of cattle into Kansas from the States of Kentucky, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri until after they have undergone a quarantine of sixty days at the point of introduction, and have been released under a clean bill of health from the State Veterinary Surgeon. He also prohibits the introduction of Jersey cattle from any State in the Union.

The Lexington City Council last night accepted the proposition of the Chattanooga spoke factory to build there, and donated ground and building. An ordinance was passed to exempt from taxation for ten years all manufacturing concerns located there and employing fifty or more hands.

A good many of the Federal officeholders have already begun to hedge. Myra's note comes from the Union and Hendricks.

Bring your neighbor to town with you Tuesday and the old 'eman too, when you come to hear Blackburn rattle the rods.

Bald Eagle.

Mr. Wesley Whaley, of Coffee county, Kansas, is visiting relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. Sam Rogers sold to Andrew English two pair of work mules at $300 per pair.

Members Jas. Ratliff, Roland Burbidge and Tom Jeff Jones leave today for Kansas for the purpose of locating a cattle ranch.

There is a rumor afloat in this neighborhood that Joe Terry, who left here last week for his home in Texas is dead. One report says he was killed on the cars near Louisville. The other report is to the effect that he died from hemorrhage of the lungs, caused from an old wound he received while living here, several years ago. We sincerely hope that these rumors are untrue, and that Joe is ere this at his home with his family.

From the South.

To those who live in the densely peopled counties of the Blue Grass, Ky., some of the pictures of southern life and habits given in these letters may seem romances but to those who have traveled through these regions in the rear of a mule or horse drove, they will be but pictures of scenes and characters, very familiar.

Disembarrass your minds of all thoughts of green pastures, well kept, well fenced, umbrageous trees, and herds of short-horns or droves of satin-skinned horses, and picture to your mind's eye tall, melancholy pines, sprawling oaks, black jacks, and underbrush and Lespedeza, a cross between crab apple and dog fennel. No grass but sheep grass and nameless weeds; no fences worthy the name; no corn that a knob farmer would recognize as such; no cattle, no hogs, or horses but travesties only so called "stock." Nothing, absolutely nothing except cotton, cotton "ad nauseam," and you have some idea of how things look down here. It is enough to give a Kentuckian the "jim-jams" in a week after landing, if he be not sustained by a stern sense of duty or a triumphant faith.

Add to this, the fact that the country houses are built of pine boards, gutters of any paint, the floors bare of any carpets and the whole concern presenting the appearance of a "camp," and you will wind up by wondering what is the matter with the people that they can be satisfied to live so, for a more miserable outlook can hardly be conceived. You ask what is wrong here? Without pretending to be able to give altogether a satisfactory answer to the query, my residence having been so brief

I will answer it in one word—Yankees. The war beggared this people, the carpet baggers pillaged and plundered them into debt, and railroad monopolies have finished by putting their heels upon them. I am told, and I believe truthfully that not a dozen farms are held in the county of Carroll unencumbered by a mortgage. The planters can barely make enough from their impoverished lands to pay their taxes and interest, and support their families, leaving nothing to expend on improvements. They have lost all spring and drag out a weary life without hope of better days.

If I had not been a Democrat before my visit here, this surely would have made me an undying foe to all that calls itself Yankee. It makes my blood boil while listening to what the people of this country had to bear from the cursed fanaticism of the North. If retribution comes in this life, surely the radical hounds and jackals of the post-bellum days will have a long score to answer. Yet in all their deep poverty and distress their hospitality and kindness to the suffering, puts to shame the far-famed character of my native state. Oh, Kentucky! Land of wealth and plenty, thank the beneficent giver of thy blessings that you drink not the bitter dregs commended to the lips of these unfortunate sisters. Think kindly of her suffering people when you read of outrages perpetrated upon the worthless negro tribes which eat away her heart. Truly every heart knows its own sorrow best.

M., held on the third day of October, 1884, the following proceedings were had: to wit: The Lodge having returned from the funeral of their late brother Tilford Moore, the W.
